

Admission to Graduate Programs of Tsinghua University 2017

(For International Students)

Tsinghua University (THU) offers master's and doctoral degree programs to international students in 42 schools/departments (see Appendix for a catalog of programs). Among them, fifteen master's degree programs and four doctoral degree programs are offered fully in English, while others are offered fully in Chinese or bilingually in Chinese and English.

Master's degree programs are usually completed in 2-3 years, and doctoral degree programs in 3-4 years. A certificate of graduation will be awarded to students who have met all pertinent graduation requirements. A master's degree or doctoral degree will be awarded to students who have met the related requirements of degree conferment.

1. Qualification of Applicants

- Applicants must be non-Chinese citizens with a valid passport.
- Applicants for master's degree programs should have a bachelor's degree. Applicants for doctoral programs should have a master's degree.
- Language skills requirements:
 - (a) For programs offered in Chinese: Applicants for programs in humanities, social sciences, art, management, journalism and law must pass a Chinese Proficiency Test (new HSK) band 5- with a score of 180 or above, and those for science and engineering programs must pass a Chinese Proficiency Test (new HSK) band 4- with a score of 195 or above.
 - (b) For programs offered in English: See other programs specific requirements.
 - (c) For doctoral program applicants: If the English proficiency is sufficient, the Chinese language requirement could be adjusted for some majors.

Note: Please be sure to review any additional requirements that may be required for the chosen department.

3. Evaluation and Admission

THU enrolls students by document evaluation together with matriculation examination. The admission committee of the applicable department/school will review the application documents and select applicants for further examination. The examination will be made by one of the following methods: ① Interview Exemption; ② Personal Interview; ③ Interview plus written test. If an interview is required for admission, the department/school will contact the applicant directly to set up an interview appointment; and provide information about the interview process.

Admission to the graduate program is determined at the department/school level with oversight by Tsinghua University according to the result of document review, result of interview, and other factors. Certificate of Admission will be issued by THU Graduate Admission Office after the final admission result is released. Prior to this, applicants may check admission status via the THU Graduate Programs Application System for International Students (For Schwarzman Scholars, MBA, GMBA, and FMBA applicants, please check on the respective program website).

4. Scholarship

Qualified applicants are encouraged to apply for the Chinese Government Scholarship (CGS). Applications should be submitted to the China Scholarship Council (CSC) (Website: <http://www.csc.edu.cn>) through recommendation by Chinese Embassies or Consulates or relevant organizations in applicant home countries between November and April (deadlines vary by country).

Applicants are recommended to identify their respective countries' application deadlines well in advance. A certificate of conditional acceptance should be obtained from the THU Graduate Admission Office beforehand if necessary. Admission documents of Chinese Government Scholarship holders will be issued by recommending scholarship organizations (excluding scholarship holders recommended by Tsinghua University).

Applicants may also apply for the Chinese Government Scholarship with recommendation from Tsinghua University. But the number of the recommended applicants is very limited, and successful applicants are generally of remarkable merit among those who are not currently studying in China.

In addition to the Chinese Government Scholarship, applicants may choose to apply for the Beijing Government Scholarship (for master's degree programs)/Tsinghua University Scholarship (for doctoral degree Programs), which will typically support full, half, or partial tuition.

For more detailed information about introduction and application of scholarship, please visit <http://is.tsinghua.edu.cn>.

5. Accommodation

Due to limited dormitory capacity, on-campus rooms can only be reserved for those who have successfully applied online. For Chinese Government Scholarship (full-scholarship) recipients, a dormitory on campus will be reserved by the University. Those who fail to apply for the dorm online have to find off-campus accommodation independently.

Detailed information regarding THU academic life, accommodation, student activities, visa, and residence permit application, as well as other useful information, is available at <http://is.tsinghua.edu.cn>

Students from the Tsinghua-UC Berkeley Shenzhen Institute (in Shenzhen, Guangdong Province) and Tsinghua Open FIESTA do not need to apply for accommodation on campus by themselves. Student apartment accommodations will be reserved after they have been admitted into the Institute.

6. Visa Application and Registration

Admitted students should bring their personal and ordinary passport, Certificate of Admission, Visa Application Form (JW202/JW201), and original Form of Physical Examination Record for Foreigners as well as other original documents of physical examination to the Embassy or Consulate of the People's Republic of China, and apply for a student visa (X1 visa). Students who intend to live in an on-campus dormitory shall apply for the room on line during the dates specified in the university instructions. Students shall come to THU for registration during the dates indicated by the Admission package with the required documents. Normally, registration is held in late August. Students must enter Mainland China with an ordinary passport and X1 visa; and must apply for a Residence Permit within 30 days after arrival in China.

All students should present the necessary original or notarial degree certificate upon registration at Tsinghua University for enrollment qualification review. Students who are failed enrollment qualification review will be disqualified from enrollment.
